Welcome to the Chamber

Dear Greater Newport Chamber of Commerce Members,

I am delighted to extend a warm welcome to each and every one of you as we embark on another exciting year of growth, collaboration, and success within our dynamic business community. As your Chamber of Commerce President, it brings me great joy to showcase the diversity and vibrancy of our business community through this comprehensive guide, as well as highlight our program of work and key business leaders serving on our Board of Directors and Committees for 2024.

The Directory is not just a listing of businesses; it's a testament to the collective strength and resilience that defines our community. It serves as a valuable resource for locals and visitors alike, highlighting the vibrancy of our communities and the wealth of products and services our members offer. As we flip through its pages, we'll discover the wealth of expertise, creativity, and passion that defines our Chamber of Commerce.

I encourage each of you to take a moment to explore the Directory and familiarize yourselves with the diverse array of businesses represented within. Let's use this resource not only as a guide for our community but also as a tool to strengthen the connections between us.

I would also like to recognize all of our sponsors and advertisers in this year's Directory. Your participation in the Directory is a testament to your commitment to our shared goals of economic prosperity and community well-being. Thank you for being an integral part of our chamber, and for contributing to the success and growth of our local business landscape.

I look forward to seeing your businesses succeed throughout the year, and I am excited about the positive impact we will continue to make together.

Best wishes,

POLICY PLATFORM 2024

The Greater Newport Chamber of Commerce is working on behalf of its members to enhance the regional economy by advocating for small business issues to improve the business climate, seeking funding for technical assistance and capacity building, engaging in workforce development and talent pipeline initiatives, and working with regional municipal leaders on all issues impacting the business communities. The Chamber regularly collects data and information related to the local economy through an Annual Business Walk, direct outreach and a Business Survey in partnership with Salve Regina University to help inform our policy priorities to best serve the broader business community. Additionally, there are a number of regional infrastructure and economic development projects that we are regularly engaged in. The following is a summary of the Greater Newport Chamber of Commerce's policy priorities for 2024:

Economic Development

- Work closely with state leadership to seek funding for a wide variety of programs to support industry sector activity and infrastructure improvements in the Region.
- Act as a resource of information and an advocate for small business interests with regard to regionally significant development projects, programs and resources.
- Support statewide efforts to offer economic incentives to existing RI businesses for growth opportunities.
- Advocate for state support of public private partnerships when the projects have positive economic impact implications for the region, maintain and enhance job opportunities, increase revenue projections, and enable growth and expansion among RI's prominent industry sectors.
- Support innovative business models and their ability to operate successfully in the State of Rhode Island.

- Encourage tax policies that enable regional competitiveness for our business community.
- Support historic tax credit legislation to support reuse and repurposing of historic properties in order to enhance economic development initiatives and maintain New England character throughout our communities.
- Support the film tax credit program.
- Encourage revising estate tax policies and rates.
- Closely monitor proposals related to pension reform.

Small Business Issues

- Explore the creation of a revolving loan fund program to be managed and distributed locally.
- Build programming to further enhance engagement with minority business service providers and MBE owned businesses to support growth and development.
- Work closely with state leadership to establish programs to meet the technical assistance needs of the small businesses community, specifically for ecommerce site development, financial literacy/stability, and technology upgrades for general business operations.

- Support proposals to reduce regulations and fees imposed on the small business community.
- Support for state matching funds of SBA, SBDC and CWE federal resources, to enable those valuable resources to small businesses to continue and perhaps be enhanced. Continue to partner with all three organizations to bring quality programming to the Greater Newport region.
- Continue to support efforts to streamline the regulatory process on a statewide and municipal level for issues related to the business community.
- Reduce the cost of doing business by implementing tax reform and opposing new state mandates that will be costly and infringe on the private sector's ability to do business autonomously.
- Develop state tax incentives for businesses to start 401 k plan for employees for first 3 years.
- Funding for capacity building for regional economic development entity.
- Support the Supply RI and Innovation Voucher Program for small businesses.
- Support efforts to diversify energy sources and reduce overall costs of utilities to maintain a level of competitiveness for the region.

- Advocate on behalf of environmental policies that will have direct impact on our island communities, related to resiliency, transportation options, and the economic activities associated with ocean communities.

Workforce Development and Talent Attraction

- Offer Job Bank for employers and individuals seeking work.
- Assist seasonal employers with identifying and securing additional workforce through the J1 visa programs though a direct marketing outreach program.
- Support the development of talent recruitment packages and incentives through a statewide program to address workforce shortages.
- Invest in workforce development programs for training and retraining a skilled workforce for blue economy industry sectors.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Ton of Love Food Drive

Ton of Love is a long-time signature community service project of the Ambassadors Committee. Each year, member businesses participate in this important chamber initiative and donate a ton of food and personal items in support of our neighbors at the Dr Martin Luther King, Jr. community Center food pantry.

Other 2024 Ambassador projects include initiatives in support of Potter League for Animals, Clean Ocean Access, Alzheimer's Association of Rhode Island, Holidays by the Sea, the Chamber's Shop Local initiative, and more to be announced.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

WADK 1540 AM Talk of the Town with Bruce Newbury

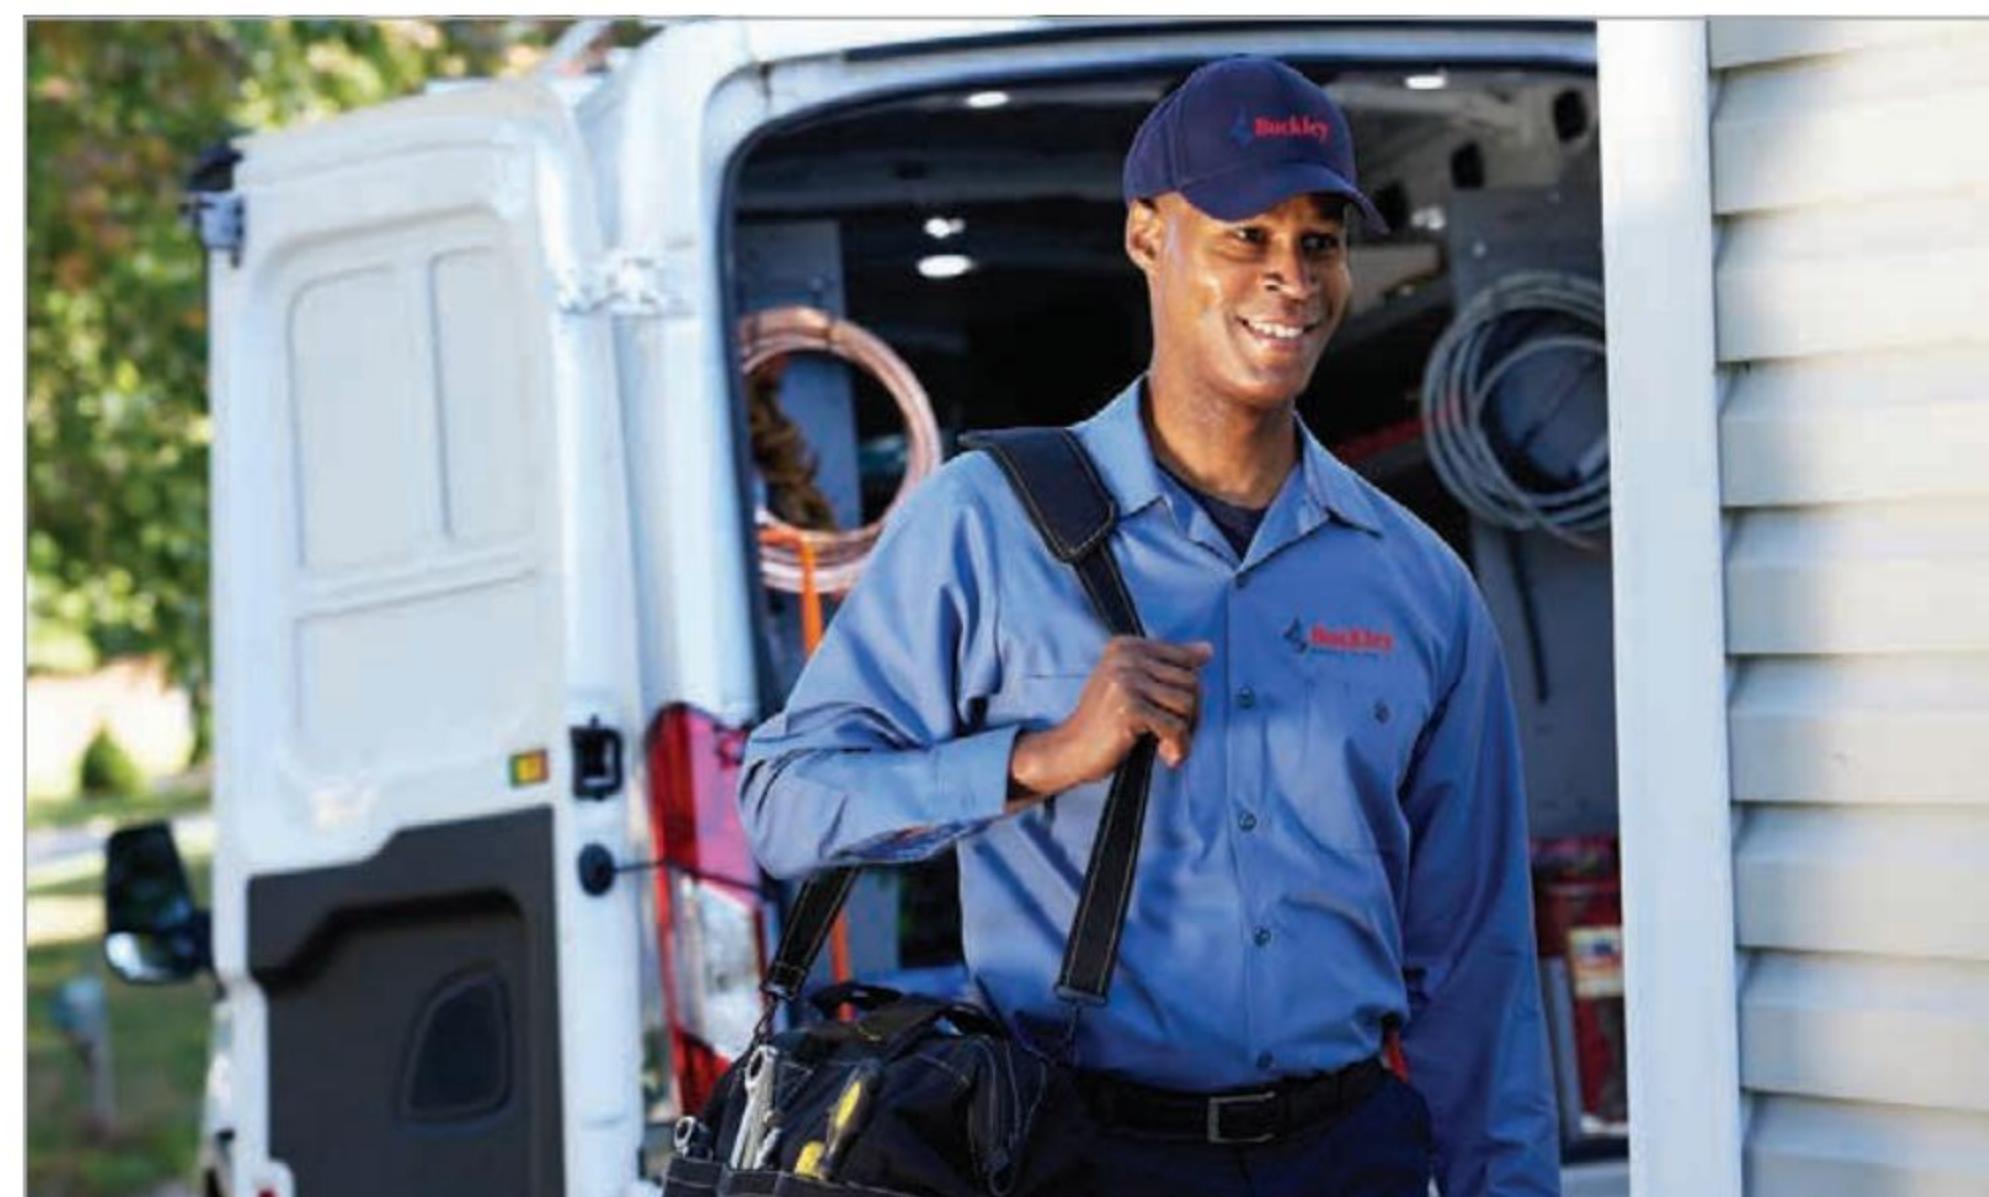

Each Thursday morning at 10a.m. the Chamber hosts “The Business of Newport County” with various guests from Chamber Membership to talk about current events and initiatives, legislative updates, and more. The show can be heard live on 1540 AM and streaming from WADK.com. It can also be found as a podcast on the WADK website and social media.

Business of the Week

Each week during the Chamber’s WADK segment, a local business is highlighted and rewarded for being an integral part of greater Newport. Chamber members can nominate each other or themselves by contacting Chamber staff.

Ribbon Cuttings & Grand Opening Celebrations

Ribbon Cuttings are an exciting way to commemorate the opening of a new business, or new location. We bring the big scissors and ribbon, and you gather your friends and colleagues together for a celebration and photo opportunity.

Holidays by the Sea

Each year, the Chamber encourages people to Shop, Stay, Dine, and Explore Local with its Holidays by the Sea program. Marketing opportunities and radio features on WADK 1540 AM throughout the shopping season follow a hosted community gathering and press conference with community leaders, elected officials and representatives from the retail and hospitality industries to kick off the holiday shopping season.

Election Events

During election years, the Chamber offers a “Meet & Greet” for all area voters to meet candidates from the local districts face to face and learn more about their platforms as related to the business community. Our most recent Meet & Greet was held at the Wyndham Atlantic Resort and welcomed candidates from the local, state and federal levels and voters from throughout the Greater Newport area.

Greater Newport's leaders understand that no single community can support the range of resources and expertise needed for economic stability and agree that responsibility must be shared.

We have implemented a robust Business Retention and Expansion program and have developed a regional economic development strategy to remain competitive.

This initiative is a public private partnership incorporating resources from the 9 communities of the East Bay, including Bristol, Jamestown, Middletown, Newport, Portsmouth, Tiverton and Warren, as well as the van Beuren Foundation, Rhode Island Foundation and the private sector. Through Connect Greater Newport, the Chamber is working to:

- Provide business navigation and technical assistance supports
- Improve economic development infrastructure related to broadband, workforce housing, transportation
- Small business and talent recruitment efforts
- Hold annual business walk and survey of the local business community

Innovation and Entrepreneurship

The Chamber is taking a leadership role in supporting and developing the entrepreneurship and innovation ecosystem in the Greater Newport region. We do this through supporting specific initiatives and projects to serve founders and innovators, as well as representing the region in conferences, trade missions and with our sister cities internationally. Our partnership with the City of Newport to oversee the management of Innovate Newport and implement meaningful programming to support budding entrepreneurs has proven to be a great value add for the business community and tech sectors throughout the region.

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS & ADVOCACY

We work on behalf of members to improve the overall business climate in the state through a number of specific priorities, including, advocating for specific small business issues, supporting industry sector projects that will enhance the vitality of the entire region, supporting education and workforce development initiatives, and working with local municipal government leaders to identify ways of enhancing the local economy. The Chamber is a member of the Rhode Island Business Coalition and the Rhode Island Chamber of Commerce Coalition. These Coalitions monitor legislation that affects the business community and lobby on behalf of the business community at the General Assembly.

NON-PROFIT FOUNDATION

The Newport County Development Council (NCDC), the 501c3 arm of the Chamber, receives and administers hundreds of thousands of dollars in funds on behalf of critical economic development and community planning initiatives. The Chamber is involved in numerous projects and public private partnerships with Newport County and East Bay municipalities and community organizations through the NCDC. The NCDC also acts as the fiscal agent on behalf of dozens of community organizations.

EXCELLENCE IN BUSINESS AWARDS

The Excellence in Business Awards are presented annually to honor outstanding business achievement in the Greater Newport Rhode Island region. They are designed to celebrate the achievements of our businesses and to recognize the vital role they play in the economic well-being of our community. The nominations were reviewed by a selection committee. Each category was judged by a volunteer panel comprised of Chamber Board members, Chamber committee members, previous award winners, and general membership. Business innovation, customer service, growth, industry leadership, community service, and other local, regional and national recognition were among the factors weighed by the committee.

The 2022 award winners were selected from more than 40 nominations in 6 categories: Micro Business, Small Business, Big Business, Nonprofit, and Woman/Minority Owned Business. The Greater Newport Chamber of Commerce together with Carey, Richmond & Viking, the sponsor of the 2023 Excellence in Business Awards would like to congratulate this year's winners:

Welcome

A Desirable Location

With towns located on islands and the eastern side of Rhode Island, Newport County offers a seemingly endless shoreline providing truly endless opportunities for outdoor recreation, including fostering a rich culture of boating and yachting.

The seaside towns of Jamestown, Little Compton, Middletown, Newport, Portsmouth and Tiverton offer the perfect resort destinations that include access to New England's best beaches, a multitude of interesting historical sites and boutique shopping avenues.

The city of Newport, nicknamed the "City by the Sea," offers 22 miles of coastline where visitors can enjoy the beach, the coastline, cliff walk or picnicking in the nearby parks. Middletown's Second Beach is often recognized as one of the best in New England.

Fort Adams State Park, located at the mouth of the harbor, is one of many in the city that offers a shady respite from the beach and offers a beautiful picnic spot with ocean views. Brenton Point State Park offers a perfect spot for families to fly a kite – especially during the annual kite festival held in July. The famed Newport Cliff Walk offers a three and a half mile path overlooking the sea and is perfect for walking or jogging. All towns in Newport County offer some quality beaches to visitors and area residents.

However, Newport County is much more than just beaches. The beautiful natural surroundings have attracted artists from all over to come and try to capture the landscape. A stroll down Newport's popular Bellevue Avenue will invite any visitor into one of the many galleries these artists have opened. The seaside shopping goes beyond galleries and offers shoppers access to quaint boutiques and high-end stores. Small shops on Bowen's and Bannister's Wharf help offer endless options to visitors. These beautiful piers are also home to five star restaurants offering the best seafood New England has to offer and small ice cream shops where tourists can enjoy a cone with a view of the boats and the water.

Newport County is steeped in a rich American history, particularly from the Colonial Era and the Gilded Age.

These shoreline towns have long attracted vacationers making them resort communities. In the Gilded Age, America's richest came to Newport to build their mansions. Visitors can still get a taste of this luxury today by visiting the mansions including The Breakers, Chateau-sur-Mer, The Elms, Marble House, Rosecliff, Rough Point, and the William Watts Sherman House, many of which are open for tours. The historic downtown area also has one of the highest concentrations of colonial homes found anywhere in the country. Visitors to the city can easily walk into another world with a stroll downtown.

With so much surrounding water, it is also no surprise that Newport County has a strong naval and sailing history. Newport and Middletown are home to a U.S. Naval Station, which includes the Naval War College and the Naval Justice School. Inactive ships as well as the U.S. Coast Guard are housed in this area as well. The city was once home to the America's Cup yacht sailing competition. Although Newport stopped hosting in the 1980's, some America's Cup yachts are still housed in the harbor. Now, the town of Bristol is the headquarters of U.S. Sailing.

For visitors looking for an excuse to head to Newport County, the area holds festivals throughout the year to attract those with all interests. There are music festivals for music-lovers of all tastes, including the famed Newport Jazz Festival, Newport Folk Festival, and the Newport Music Festival. The Newport International Boat Show and the Audrain Concourse take place each fall, along with newportFILM that presents documentaries and pre-release films at locations throughout the county.

With so many opportunities for fun, Newport County is the perfect place for a family vacation, a romantic weekend or to make a pleasant home.

Communities

Jamestown

Situated at the mouth of Narragansett Bay, Conanicut Island has a rich and varied history, evolving from a prehistoric Indian community, through a period of farming settlements, and later to a strategic military location during World War II. Evidence of the island's early days can be found in the numerous museums, state parks, and historic sites. Though Jamestown now has 5,405 residents, the place has retained its rural character and remains a quiet seaside community.

Narragansett Avenue bisects the island and is the location of many fine restaurants and shops. Residents and summer visitors can enjoy the bay from any one of a number of locations. Beavertail State Park with its unique lighthouse and museum is located at the southern tip of the island and is one of the most recognizable destinations in the state.

Little Compton

Little Compton was incorporated as a part of Plymouth Colony in 1682. In 1746, under Royal Decree, it was transferred to Rhode Island. The town is located in a rural part of the state. Bounded on the east by the Town of Westport, Mass., on the south by the Atlantic Ocean, and the west by the Sakonnet River (approximately 13.5 miles of coast-line), it is the second smallest in population of the 39 cities and towns in Rhode Island. Little Compton encompasses an area of 23.2 square miles, of which 1.7 square miles is inland water. The town is a rural agricultural community with a small fishing fleet that operates from Sakonnet harbor.

Agriculture, fishing, and seasonal-based economic activity are the most significant elements of the local economy. Most businesses are small. There are no motels or large office buildings, few multiple family dwellings, and only one hotel (14 rooms, 3 stories high). Employment for Little Compton residents is largely centered on Aquidneck Island, and in Providence and Southeastern Massachusetts.

Middletown

Located in the middle section of Aquidneck Island, Middletown occupies 14.7 square miles in lower Narragansett Bay. Middletown's major transportation arteries Route 114 and Route 138 connect bridges to the south and north. The Newport State Airport located in Middletown accommodates private aircrafts and provides charter flights and feeder service to other airfields.

Incorporated in 1743 Middletown saw a dramatic change with the onset of World War II, from rural farmlands to a hub of US Naval support facilities and housing when the Navy purchased over 300 acres of waterfront property. The town is still the center for many of the contract service companies supporting naval activities.

Middletown is also home to many outstanding family and recreational activities as well as numerous historical sites, which have been maintained through the town's Historical Commission.

Newport

The City of Newport, Rhode Island, is an internationally known destination. Often referred to as America's First Resort, visitors from all over the globe flock to Newport to enjoy pristine beaches, compete in major sailing events, and absorb Newport's rich history.

Home to the Newport Mansions, the nation's first Synagogue, and countless other museums and attractions, Newport has recently been named one of America's Dozen Distinct Destinations by the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

Founded in 1639 by English settlers as a result of its founder's frustration with political intervention in their religious beliefs, Newport continues its commitment to liberty of conscience and religion. Newport's resilience and creativity in meeting the economic changes that have overtaken it offer strong proof that diversity works in keeping the city alive and vibrant. With an economy driven by marine trades, defense and government contract related industries, health care and hospitality, Newport continues to thrive in today's changing environment. A Mayor and City Council govern Newport.

Portsmouth

Founded by Ann Hutchinson in 1638, Portsmouth was the first town in the nation established by a woman and according to many, was the first true democracy in America. The Portsmouth Compact of 1638 was the first authentic guarantee of civil and religious freedom in the new world.

Portsmouth boasts 56 miles of shoreline and one of the most progressive farm preservations in New England with over 4000 acres of farmland. Easy to access by land and sea and centrally located on the Eastern Seaboard, Portsmouth is a stone's throw away from all major business centers, activities and attractions in New England.

The Portsmouth Enterprise Zone provides tax benefits for businesses building, expanding or renovating, making it an attractive place for major Aquidneck Island Industries including oceanography, underwater systems development, navigational equipment, boat and yacht building and services, tourism and much more.

Tiverton

Situated on the eastern banks of the Sakonnet River, the Town of Tiverton is a community with a proud past – and a promising future. Rich in history, the town is the home of Fort Barton, a revolutionary war site in which troops were launched to defend Newport and Aquidneck Island from the British. It is thought to be the largest launching of troops in the Revolutionary War. Fort Barton is open to visitors, and the breathtaking views and nature trails are a delight to behold.

The view from the observation tower on a clear day provides a panorama, extending from the tip of Newport to the skyline of Providence. The town has planned for conservation by the development of Weetamoo Woods, a 480 acre preservation with walking paths and excellent examples of environmental growth as it was many years ago. The two public beaches in town provide excellent recreation. Fogland Beach also offers one of the best wind surfing areas on the eastern seaboard.

Not content to rest on the natural beauty, splendor and history of the community, the town is also moving forward with economic development while taking every precaution to preserve the outstanding quality of life present there. Tiverton is the site of the third largest power production facility in Rhode Island. Equipped with the most stringent environmental safeguards, Tiverton Power operates a 265-megawatt facility in the Tiverton Industrial Park.

No visit to Tiverton would be complete without a trip to Tiverton Four Corners. The site of historic buildings and quaint shops, Tiverton Four Corners is also the host to many unique outdoor activities as well as a Farmers Market from May to September annually. Whatever your taste, Tiverton can provide you with what you want. Secluded walks along the waterfront, nature trails, historic points of interest – it's all here!

Bristol

Located on a peninsula between Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays, Bristol is about 12 miles southeast of Providence and 12 miles north of Newport. With a population of 22,000, Bristol is easily accessible from Route 114 or Route 136 via Route 195, and from the Mount Hope Bridge via Route 24.

Bristol was the site of the first battle of King Philip's war in 1675. This was the rebellion by Wampanoag Indians against settlers who bought land from King Philip's late father, Sachem Massasoit. Philip was defeated but his Indian name, Metacom, has been given to one of Bristol's main roads. King Philip made Mount Hope his headquarters. The rocky ledge known as "King Philip's chair" where he watched for enemy ships on Mount Hope Bay is still a popular visitors' location today. As a result of the war, Plymouth Colony in Massachusetts retained Bristol lands until finally releasing them in 1747.

Bristol holds the distinction of having the oldest, continuous Fourth of July Celebration in America. The Celebration, first held in 1785, was started by Bristolians who actually took part in the Revolutionary War thus welding a permanent tie with our modern Celebrations. Bristol's original fervor in celebrating Independence Day was nurtured by extreme hardships suffered during the Revolution. This fervor continues today as Bristol becomes arguably the most patriotic town in America during the three-week Celebration which culminates in the gala Parade on Independence Day which is watched by over 200,000 enthusiastic people.

Sailing and shipbuilding have played an important role in the life of Bristol since the 17th century. Today Bristol is the home of several shipbuilding companies that have local and international reputations for quality and workmanship. Included in their portfolio are several America's Cup yachts. In 1995, Bristol became the home of the America's Cup Hall of Fame.

Bristol is the cultural center for Bristol County as it is home to eight fine museums and Roger Williams University. Roger Williams University, located at the southernmost tip of Bristol overlooking Mount Hope Bay, offers a full program of study which includes Liberal Arts, Business, Engineering, Architecture and a School of Law.

Bristol remains a center of history with many handsome homes built in the 1700s and 1800s, some designed by noted architect Russell Warren, gracing the tree-lined streets. Visitors come from far away locations to enjoy Bristol's history, stroll along its waterfront, shop in its many stores and dine in its many fine restaurants.

Naval Station Newport

From its infancy during the Revolutionary War to its present day sophistication, the United States Navy has been an integral part of Narragansett Bay. Today, Naval Station (NAVSTA) Newport is home to 50 Navy, U.S. Marine Corps, U.S. Army Reserve, U.S. Coast Guard and National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration commands and activities. Newport is the Navy's premier site for training officers, officer candidates, senior enlisted personnel and midshipman candidates, as well as testing and evaluating advanced undersea warfare and development systems.

The Navy's economic impact in Rhode Island is legendary. For many years, it was the state's largest single employer in terms of personnel and payroll, and is still the largest single employer in Newport County and third overall in the state.

Approximately 12,000 military, civilian and contract personnel work at the 50 various commands and activities on Naval Station Newport with an additional 16,000 students annually passing through one of the many schools on base. Naval Station Newport is also the home of the Navy's most prestigious educational institution – the Naval War College – the oldest such institution in continuous existence anywhere in the world. Officer Training Command Newport (OTCN) is the largest officer accessions point in the Navy, with a mission to prepare Sailors and Marines through enduring professional and personal development to lead as officers in the fleet. Another important educational institution is the Surface Warfare Officers School Command (SWOSCOLCOM), which trains surface warfare officers from the time they are commissioned until they have command at sea. The largest single command on the installation is the Naval Undersea Warfare Center Division Newport (NUWCDIVNPT), the Navy's principal research; development; test and evaluation center for submarine weapons systems whose research facilities stretch from Connecticut to the Bahamas.

NEWPORT HOSPITAL: Delivering health with care

From its founding in 1873 and its early days as a cottage hospital, Newport Hospital has evolved into a state-of-the-art health care facility that offers a broad range of sophisticated medical services, including inpatient and outpatient surgery; advanced orthopedics, cancer care and cardiac services; comprehensive diagnostic imaging; an award-winning birthing center; a renowned rehabilitation center; an intensive care unit; medical and surgical care units; a behavioral health unit and an emergency department that provides all levels of urgent care and leads the state in patient satisfaction. In addition, the hospital's affiliated physician practices provide primary and specialist care in locations from Portsmouth to Jamestown to Tiverton.

Newport Hospital is designated a Magnet hospital by the American Nurses Credentialing Center – an honor the hospital has earned multiple times, putting it among only two percent of hospitals in the nation to earn that coveted distinction. For our patients, Magnet means they can rely on exceptional nursing care.

The hospital's Noreen Stonor Drexel Birthing Center is known for its family-centered care, and has been designated a Baby Friendly hospital by the World Health Organization and UNICEF for its outstanding support of breastfeeding mothers and infants.

Newport Hospital is a Joint Commission-designated Primary Stroke Center and a Breast Imaging Center of Excellence. In 2017, Newport was the only community hospital in the state to be named a high performer in two crucial areas—Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) and heart failure treatment—by U.S. News & World Report.

HOSPITAL SERVICES

As a Lifespan partner, Newport Hospital offers services and amenities that many community hospitals cannot provide. We offer the most current technology and highest quality care while retaining the personal touch that our patients expect from a community hospital. Our partnership with Lifespan's large academic medical centers means we can provide seamless access to highly specialized services for Newport County residents.

The Behavioral Health Unit is a comprehensive, acute care psychiatric facility with multidisciplinary teams for individualized assessment and treatment.

OUTPATIENT SERVICES

Cardiopulmonary services include a full range of testing, such as EEG, EKG, echocardiography, Holter monitoring, respiratory and pulmonary function testing, gastroesophageal reflux testing, and a sleep laboratory.

The hospital offers a broad range of surgical services, with three general surgeons performing the full spectrum of inpatient and outpatient surgeries in state-of-the-art operating suites, with separate endoscopy rooms and a room for minor procedures.

The emergency department is open and staffed 24 hours a day, every day. It includes private exam rooms, a trauma room, cardiac rooms, a fracture room and a radiology suite.

Laboratory services are provided on a walk-in basis with a physician's order.

Our affiliated primary care practices—Lifespan Physician Group, Primary Care, Newport, Tiverton and Portsmouth, along with Jamestown Family Practice – deliver primary care to residents of all ages throughout Newport County.

Community education services include free lectures on health topics, support groups and community exercise programs, as well as free screenings and special health events offered throughout the year.
